History's Apology: Social Movements and Sexual Rights in the Postcolonial World

Our speaker will explore the history of social movements for sexual rights and current issues related to women and LGBTQIA communities from a global perspective. She will trace the impact of the HIV/AIDS pandemic on organizing for LGBTQ rights in South Asia in particular, and reflect on the complex role of the history of the AIDS pandemic in global claims for sexual rights.

How can we think of the crisis of pandemics as pivotal moments to imagine radical social change? There will be time for Q & A.
